

HB 155 -- Coroner Duties

Sponsor: Black

Currently, the coroner must inform one or more associate circuit judges of the proper county or some judge or justice of a court of record when he or she completes an inquisition regarding the death of any person by a felonious act. This bill specifies that the coroner must inform the prosecuting attorney of the proper county of the result of the inquisition.