

HB 261 -- Teacher Layoffs

Sponsor: Barnes

This bill removes the requirement that a decision regarding placing a teacher on leave due to decreased student enrollment, school reorganization, or the financial condition of the school must consider the teacher's seniority, leaving the decision to be made solely on the basis of a performance-based evaluation within the field of specialization.