

HB 800 -- School Discipline

Sponsor: Stream

Currently, local public school boards are required to establish a written policy on discipline including whether or not to allow the use of corporal punishment. This bill prohibits spanking from being used in a public school on any student with an individualized education plan who is receiving special education services.