

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Extraordinary Session, 96th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTIETH DAY, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2011

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Cierpiot in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

David encouraged himself in the Lord his God. (1 Samuel 30:6)

Almighty God, Whose spirit is within all of Your creation, Whose love never fails, and Whose presence is with us all our days, make us more aware of You, more responsive to Your call, more obedient to Your will, and more ready to help our fellow men and women.

Grant unto us a greater honesty of purpose, a more generous attitude toward others, and a most genuine faith in You - which will help us live unashamed before You and those who love us. When we are tempted, give us strength to overcome our temptations; when we begin to give way to discouragement, help us to find our encouragement in You; when we fail and would give up, grant us courage to try again.

May the light of truth illumine our way, may the love of life illumine our hearts, and may the life of love illumine our relationships with one another.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.
