

HB 1058 -- Newborn Screenings

Sponsor: Brattin

This bill establishes Chloe's Law which requires, subject to appropriations, the Department of Health and Senior Services to expand by January 1, 2013, the newborn screening requirements to include a pulse oximetry screening prior to the newborn being discharged from a health care facility.