

HJR 84 -- Bonded Indebtedness of School Districts

Sponsor: Neth

Upon voter approval, this constitutional amendment allows a qualified school district to become indebted in an amount up to an additional 5% of the value of its taxable tangible property above the 15% currently allowed.