

HB 168 -- Public Institutions of Higher Education Residency Status

Sponsor: Davis

This bill allows a person who is separating from any branch of the United States military to have resident status for admission and in-state tuition at any approved public higher education institution in the state if the person can demonstrate presence within the state and, if attending community college, within the service area of the community college he or she attends.