

HB 293 -- Assessment of Administrative Penalties

Sponsor: Spencer

This bill requires any state agency that assesses or imposes an administrative penalty to implement procedures that provide information to the general public detailing the administrative appeal process so an individual wishing to dispute or appeal an administrative penalty will have the information readily available.