

HB 566 -- Visitation Rights

Sponsor: Austin

This bill specifies that if custody, visitation, or third-party custody is denied or interfered with by a parent or third party without good cause, the aggrieved person may file a family access motion with the court stating the specific facts that constitute a violation of a judgment of paternity.