

HB 590 -- Licensing Requirements for Certain Professions

Sponsor: Koenig

This bill authorizes a person to engage in the practice of certain professions without being licensed if the person does not hold himself or herself out as being licensed. These professions include interior designers, barbers, cosmetologists and cosmetology school operators. Any person who violates these provisions will be guilty of a class C misdemeanor.