

HB 806 -- Radio Frequency Identification Technology in Schools

Sponsor: Bahr

This bill defines radio frequency identification technology and prohibits its use by school districts to identify a student, transmit information about a student, or to monitor a student's location.