

HB 809 -- Tax District Information

Sponsor: Rowden

This bill requires tax districts to report to the Department of Revenue its tax rate and revenue collection information. The department can use the information to provide oversight, including the verification of compliance, completeness, and accuracy in reporting and must display each tax district's non-confidential information on its website in an itemized fashion.