

HB 996 -- Disability License Plates and Placards

Sponsor: Cross

Currently, a person 75 years of age or older who provided a physician's statement certifying the person was permanently disabled with the original application for a disabled person's license plate or windshield placard did not have to provide the physician's statement to renew the plate or placard. This bill extends the provision to all disabled persons.