

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 97th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2014

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jones in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Steve Lynch.

Let us pray.

Our Father, we come humbly before You as we consider the honor it is to serve in this amazing place and to serve this great state. We recognize we are here because each one of us was chosen. As the people of my district chose me, every one of you was chosen by your people in your district to be their voice. We were chosen because people believe in the democracy of our state and nation. We were chosen because people are in need and they believe we understand. We were chosen because people believe we will look outside of ourselves and our own interests and see them and theirs. We were chosen because people believe we will work through our differences and will work together for the greater good. We were chosen because people believe, in spite of their anger and frustration with government, that they saw something in us that gave them hope. We were chosen, so may we serve in such a respectful and honorable way, that we are able to hold our heads high as we walk the halls of this Capitol, the sidewalks of our communities, and someday the streets of gold in Heaven. We were chosen, so Father may we be found worthy in our people's eyes, and most importantly, Your eyes. In Jesus' name we pray.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixteenth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:
