

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 98th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2015

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Hoskins in the Chair.

Prayer by Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

And thou shalt be called the prophet of the Most High to give light to those who sit in darkness and to guide our feet into the way of peace. (Luke 1: 76, 79)

O Loving God, at the gate of a new day we bow in silence before You, praying for a renewal of our spirits as we face these times which try our souls, cause us to lose patience with each other, and make us impatient with ourselves.

That we may be at our best and do our very best for You and for our State, grant us the courage of a humble mind, the creative faith of a high hope, and the confident peace of a heart stayed on You.

By the power of your spirit may we maintain our integrity, be motivated by justice, and move resolutely in the direction of peace on earth and good will to citizens. Bless the peacemakers and may the peace made be just and enduring and for the good of all in Missouri and Israel.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-eighth day was approved as printed.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Committee on Civil and Criminal Proceedings, Chairman Cornejo reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Civil and Criminal Proceedings, to which was referred HB 95, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass with House Committee Amendment No. 1, and pursuant to Rule 27(9) be referred to the Select Committee on Judiciary.

House Committee Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 95, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"452.315. 1. In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation, either party may move for temporary maintenance and for temporary support for each child entitled to support. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested. In a proceeding for disposition of property, maintenance or support following the dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse, either party may move for maintenance and for support of each child entitled to support. This motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested. This motion and the affidavit shall be served as though an original pleading upon the opposite party.

2. As a part of a motion for temporary maintenance or support or by independent motion accompanied by affidavit, either party may request the court to issue an order after notice and hearing:

(1) Restraining any person from transferring, encumbering, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life and, if so restrained, requiring the person to notify the moving party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures and to account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after the order is issued;

(2) Enjoining a party from harassing, abusing, molesting or disturbing the peace of the other party or of any child;

(3) Excluding a party from the family home or from the home of the other party upon a showing that physical or emotional harm would otherwise result;

(4) Establishing and ordering compliance with a custody order and providing for the support of each child;

(5) Reallocating or reapportioning between the parties any or all insurance costs under section 452.317 incurred during the pendency of the dissolution of marriage or legal separation.

3. The court may issue a restraining order only if it finds on the evidence that irreparable injury would result to the moving party if an order is not issued until the time for answering has elapsed.

4. An answer may be filed within ten days after service of notice of motion or at the time specified in the restraining order.

5. On the basis of the showing made and in conformity with section 452.335 on maintenance and section 452.340 on support, the court may issue a temporary injunction and an order for temporary maintenance or support in such amounts and on such terms as are just and proper in the circumstances.

6. A restraining order or temporary injunction:

(1) Does not prejudice the rights of the parties or the child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceedings;

(2) May be revoked or modified prior to final judgment on a showing by affidavit of the facts necessary to revocation or modification of a final judgment pursuant to section 452.370; and

(3) Terminates when the final judgment is entered or when the petition for dissolution or legal separation is voluntarily dismissed.

7. The court shall enter a temporary order requiring the provision of child support pending the final judicial determination if there is clear and convincing evidence establishing a presumption of paternity pursuant to section 210.822. In determining the amount of child support, the court shall consider the factors set forth in section 452.340.

8. Any order entered in modification or vacation of any temporary order entered pursuant to this section may be retroactive to the date of entry of the original temporary order."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section 452.317, Lines 4 to 6, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"insurance. Any insurance costs incurred during the pendency of the dissolution of marriage or legal separation shall be subject to court order for temporary maintenance or support under subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of section 452.315."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.
