

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 98th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTIETH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 2, 2015

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Diehl in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Stacey Newman.

Source of All Being, Creator of All Life, may Your goodness find its way into our lives.

Our hearts are heavy today in grief and in remembrance for one who has left us too soon. As a Jewish prayer says, "as long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them." The gift of grief is that it presents us with the opportunity to heal, grow and carry on the work of one unfinished.

May we envelop each other in our pain and sorrow knowing that tomorrow brings a new season, for the work that is never done.

So may we who wield power do so with a balance of wisdom, justice and compassion. May we feel called to action based on injustices in the world and see ourselves not as enemies of one another, not in struggle with one another but as human beings, created in the image of God, connected to one another's well-being.

May we commit to learning from each other through honest dialogue, opening our hearts in compassion to one another, bearing witness to the pain and fear of one another, even as we may worship differently, in our own ways.

May we open our eyes to the invisible lines of connection that unite us all as God's children, from wherever we have come, and continue to work for a world where each of us is valued, respected, cherished and loved.

As it is said in Hebrew, "Baruch Atah Adonai, Eloheinu Melech Ha'Olam, Sh'hecheyanu, V'Kiyemanu, V'Higianu LaZman HaZeh," which in English is rendered:

"Praised are You, the Eternal One our God, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this moment."

And the House says, "Amen."

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-ninth day was approved as printed by the following vote:
