

HB 1273 -- JUDICIAL RETIREMENT BENEFITS

SPONSOR: Austin

This bill allows any commissioner of the court of appeals or commissioner or deputy commissioner of the circuit court to serve until age 75 regardless of whether he or she has completed a total of 12 years of service.

The bill includes a commissioner of the court of appeals to the definition of "judge" for the purpose of calculating retirement benefits under the provisions regarding retirement of judges.