

HB 2267 -- ETHICS

SPONSOR: Cornejo

This bill prohibits statewide elected officials and members of the General Assembly from receiving compensation as paid political consultants for specified political activities on behalf of other individuals holding office as statewide elected officials or members of the General Assembly. Compensation for activities on behalf of any type of committee such as campaign committees, candidate committees, continuing committees, or political party committees is also prohibited.

The bill also prohibits members of the General Assembly from registering or serving as lobbyists until two years after the expiration of their term in office.

The bill also regulates 501(c)(4) organizations by requiring them to disclose donor lists to the Missouri Ethics Commission or on their webpage of donors giving more than $100 to such organizations in order to be eligible to make donations to any type of committee.
