

HB 2460 -- COURT ORDERS

SPONSOR: Neely

This bill requires a court entering an order for child support to enter written findings of fact and conclusions of law for each specified factor. A court entering a custody order is required to enter written findings of fact and conclusions of law for each specified factor.