

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2017

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? (Psalm 27:1)

O Loving God, in a world filled with the noise of those who put their energy in hatred and whose loudness would drown out the efforts of those who seek the path of happiness for all men and women, we pray to be kept loving in a world of doubt and fear.

Grant to us a vision of Your greatness and an experience of Your love that we may lead our people in the healthy paths of joy and peace on this St. Valentine's Day.

Help us to meet this opportunity with courage, to do our most challenging duties with undying devotion and to practice what we profess lest our campaign promises be proven impractical and false.

Give to our citizens and our military the insight and inspiration to lead our beloved Show-Me State in making the will of the People the highest law.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-fourth day was approved as printed.

Representative Cierpiot moved that Rule 122 be suspended.

At the first stage the trier shall decide only whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of any submitted offense. The issue of punishment shall not be submitted to the trier at the first stage. If an offense is charged other than murder in the first degree in a count together with a count of murder in the first degree, the trial judge shall assess punishment on any such offense according to law, after the defendant is found guilty of such offense and after he finds the defendant to be a prior offender pursuant to chapter 558.—~~

~~3. If murder in the first degree is submitted and the death penalty was not waived but the trier finds the defendant guilty of a lesser homicide, a second stage of the trial shall proceed as in all other criminal cases. The attorneys may then argue as in other criminal cases the issue of punishment, after which the trier shall assess and declare the punishment as in all other criminal cases.—~~

~~4. If the trier at the first stage of a trial where the death penalty was not waived finds the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree, a second stage of the trial shall proceed at which the only issue shall be the punishment to be assessed and declared.— Evidence in aggravation and mitigation of punishment, including but not limited to evidence supporting any of the aggravating or mitigating circumstances listed in subsection 2 or 3 of section 565.032, may be presented subject to the rules of evidence at criminal trials. Such evidence may include, within the discretion of the court, evidence concerning the murder victim and the impact of the offense upon the family of the victim and others.— Rebuttal and surrebuttal evidence may be presented. The state shall be the first to proceed.— If the trier is a jury it shall be instructed on the law. The attorneys may then argue the issue of punishment to the jury, and the state shall have the right to open and close the argument.— The trier shall assess and declare the punishment at life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor:—~~

~~(1) If the trier finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant is intellectually disabled; or—~~

~~(3) If the trier concludes that there is evidence in mitigation of punishment, including but not limited to evidence supporting the statutory mitigating circumstances listed in subsection 3 of section 565.032, which is sufficient to outweigh the evidence in aggravation of punishment found by the trier; or—~~

~~(4) If the trier decides under all of the circumstances not to assess and declare the punishment at death. If the trier is a jury it shall be so instructed.—~~

~~If the trier assesses and declares the punishment at death it shall, in its findings or verdict, set out in writing the aggravating circumstance or circumstances listed in subsection 2 of section 565.032 which it found beyond a reasonable doubt. If the trier is a jury it shall be instructed before the case is submitted that if it is unable to decide or agree upon the punishment the court shall assess and declare the punishment at life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor or death.— The court shall follow the same procedure as set out in this section whenever it is required to determine punishment for murder in the first degree.—~~

~~5. Upon written agreement of the parties and with leave of the court, the issue of the defendant's intellectual disability may be taken up by the court and decided prior to trial without prejudicing the defendant's right to have the issue submitted to the trier of fact as provided in subsection 4 of this section.~~
