

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-NINTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2017

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them. (Matthew 18:20)

Almighty and All Present God, at this sacred hour we bow and pray that You will touch our spirits and transform our souls by Your grace that we may have strength for the day, courage with each hour, and peace in every moment.

Ignite within us the fire of Your spirit and warm our hearts with the power of Your presence that in the time of decision we may be equal to every experience, ready for every responsibility, and adequate for every task.

Grant that we may see Your way more clearly during Black History Month and be given wisdom to work with You in making our State a better place in which Your children can live together in abundant happiness, in abounding harmony, and in abiding hope in the Show-Me State.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-eighth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

Any person, department, or department employee authorized to have access to information obtained under this section who unlawfully and knowingly discloses such information in violation of this section or who uses such information in a manner and for a purpose in violation of this section is guilty of a class E felony starting January 1, 2018.

10. Neither the sovereign nor the official immunity doctrines shall apply to a person, department, or department employee authorized to have information obtained under this section in instances when such information is disclosed to an unauthorized party. If the department is responsible in whole or in part for such information being negligently disclosed to an unauthorized party, then the person whose information was disclosed shall have a cause of action to recover liquidated damages in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars in addition to compensatory economic and non-economic damages, attorney fees, and court costs. If it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that such disclosure was done intentionally and maliciously, then the person shall be entitled to punitive damages in addition to the damages above. None of the foregoing damages shall be paid out from the state legal expense fund but shall be paid by the person or employee that violated subsection 9."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Taylor offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 4.

*House Amendment No. 1
to
House Amendment No. 4*

AMEND House Amendment No. 4 to House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 151, Page 1, Line 7, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"of this section is guilty of a class E felony starting January 1, 2018, unless the person or employee acted under direction of a supervisor, in which case the supervisor shall be guilty of the class E felony."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Taylor, House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Kidd, House Amendment No. 4, as amended, was adopted.

Representative Ross offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 151, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting immediately after all of said section and line the following:

"115.016 Any elected official who votes or takes an action to support a measure seeking compliance with the federal REAL ID Act of 2005 shall display, in a prominent location, in bold font with a text height not less than one-tenth of the article being circulated, at each and every election the member files for after the affirmative vote or action, the following description of his or her allegiance:

I WOULD RATHER KNEEL TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT THAN STAND STRONG PROTECTING MY CONSTITUENTS' RIGHT TO PRIVACY"; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Ross moved that House Amendment No. 5 be adopted.

Which motion was defeated by the following vote, the ayes and noes having been demanded by Representative Ross:
