

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-SIXTH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 2017

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all. (1 Thessalonians 5:15)

O God of Grace and Glory, in the beginning of this busy time we would find in the living water of prayer the power which can restore our souls, renew our bodies, and make us ready for the tasks of this new day.

We may be disturbed by the pressure of these last seven weeks, weighed down by many worries, tempted to lose hope, and to give up because progress seems so long in coming. We confess that we worry too much when there is so much to be done.

We pray for our constituents and for ourselves, the leaders of our people. May we not increase our divisions by any histrionics but take advantage of every opportunity to spread hope so that our influence shall always be for the betterment of all.

Give us courage to carry on, knowing You are always with us and believing that with You we cannot fail.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Fred Wessels, Violet Wessels, and Karli Reinkemeyer.

The Journal of the forty-fifth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

"290.400. 1. As used in sections 290.400 to ~~[290.450]~~ 290.440 the following words have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

- (1) "Commission", the labor and industrial relations commission of Missouri;
- (2) "Employee", every woman or man in receipt of or entitled to compensation for labor performed for any employer;
- (3) "Employer", every person, firm, corporation, agent, manager, representative, contractor, subcontractor, principal or other person having control or direction of any woman or man employed at any labor, or responsible directly or indirectly for the wages of another;
- (4) ~~["Female", a woman of eighteen years or over;~~
- ~~(5)] "Wage rates" or "wages", [any compensation for labor measured by time, piece, or otherwise] all compensation in any form that an employer provides to employees in payment for work done or services~~ rendered including, but not limited to, base pay, overtime bonuses, stock options, awards, tips, or various forms of nonmonetary compensation if provided in lieu of or in addition to monetary compensation, provided that such compensation has economic value to an employee.

2. Nothing in sections 290.400 to 290.440 shall prevent an employee from exercising his or her rights under any other provision of law.

290.410. 1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the law, no employer shall ~~pay any female in his employ at wage rates less than the wage rates paid to male employees in the same establishment for the same quantity and quality of the same classification of work, provided that nothing herein shall prohibit a variation of rates of pay for male and female employees engaged in the same classification of work based upon a difference in seniority, length of service, ability, skill, difference in duties or services performed, difference in the shift or time of day worked, hours of work, or restrictions or prohibitions on lifting or moving objects in excess of specified weight, or other reasonable differentiation, or factors other than sex, when exercised in good faith~~ discriminate in providing compensation based on gender for equal work, the performance of which requires equal skill, effort, and responsibility, and which is performed under similar working conditions.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, it shall not be unlawful for an employer to pay different wage rates to employees if such payments are made pursuant to:

(1) A bona fide seniority or merit system;

(2) A system that measures earnings by quantity or quality of production;

(3) Any bona fide factor other than gender provided that wage differentials based on varying market rates for equal jobs shall not be considered differentials based on bona fide factors other than gender; or

(4) Bona fide regional economic differentials.

3. An employer who is paying wages in violation of this section shall not, in order to comply with this section, reduce the wage of any employee.

4. No employer may discharge, take any adverse action, or otherwise retaliate in any manner against any individual because such individual has:

(1) Opposed any act or practice made unlawful by this section; or

(2) Testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, hearing, or other proceeding to enforce this section.

5. No employer may discharge, take any adverse action, or otherwise retaliate in any manner against, coerce, intimidate, threaten, or interfere with any employee because such employee either inquired about, compared, or otherwise discussed the employee's wages or the wages of another employee; or exercised, enjoyed, aided, or encouraged any other person to exercise or enjoy any right granted or protected by this section.

290.440. 1. Any employer who violates section 290.410 is liable to the ~~female~~ employee affected in the amount of the wages of which the ~~female~~ employee is deprived by reason of the violation and an additional amount in compensatory damages, such additional amount not to exceed twice the wages awarded.

2. ~~[Any female employee receiving less than the wage to which she is entitled under sections 290.400 to 290.450 may recover in a civil action the balance of the wages, together with the costs of suit, notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage.]~~ Any employer who violates subsection 4 or 5 of section 290.410 is liable to any individual affected in the amount of all wages and benefits lost as a result of the violation and, if awarded, an additional amount of compensatory damages in an amount to be determined by a judge or jury trial.

3. ~~[The burden of proof shall be upon the person bringing the claim to establish that the differentiation in rate of pay is based upon the factor of sex and not upon other differences or factors.]~~ In the event of a finding that an employer has violated section 290.410, a court may enjoin such employer from future violations of section 290.410 and may order the employer to take such additional steps as are necessary, including reclassification of affected workers to ensure an end to the employer's gender-based pay practices or, if the employer has engaged in unlawful retaliation prohibited by section 290.410, the court may order such relief as to make the employee whole, including reinstatement.

4. Any employee prevailing in a civil action brought under sections 290.400 to 290.440, in addition to the remedies set forth in this section, may also recover court costs and reasonable attorney's fees, notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage. Any action brought under sections 290.400 to 290.440 shall be commenced within two years after the alleged violation occurs or the date of the reasonable discovery of such violation.

5. If an employee can show a deliberate pattern of violations of the provisions of sections 290.400 to 290.440, the court may order the employer to pay punitive damages to the employee in addition to any other compensation or injunctive relief ordered."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 23, Section 290.340, Line 7, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

~~"[290.450. Any action based upon or arising under sections 290.400 to 290.450 shall be instituted in the circuit court within six months after the date of the alleged violation, but in no event shall any employer be liable for any pay due under sections 290.400 to 290.450 for more than thirty days prior to receipt by the employer of written notice of claim thereof from the female employee.]"~~; and
