Offered By _____

1 AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1695, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by 2 inserting after all of said section and line the following:

4 "135.440. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

5 (1) "Contribution", a donation of cash; stocks, bonds, or other marketable securities; or real 6 property valued at the current property tax-assessed valuation of the property. If a property has not 7 been assessed or has no assessed valuation, then no credit shall be authorized for the donation of the 8 property;

9 (2) "Department", the department of mental health;

10 (3) "Director", the director of the department of mental health;

11 (4) "Justice-involved individual", a person who is on probation, paroled, discharged, or 12 otherwise released from any correctional facility of the department of corrections, any county jail, or 13 any mental health institution, where such person has been confined within the previous year;

14 (5) "Qualified organization", an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3)
15 of the Internal Revenue Code, including any faith-based organization, peer- or community-based 16 organization, or recovery community center or outreach that provides recovery support services and 17 assistance to justice-involved individuals and people in recovery from substance use disorders. A 18 qualified organization shall not have an annual budget in excess of five million dollars and shall not 19 have any employees who receive more than one hundred thousand dollars in compensation annually.
20 A qualified organization does not need to be contracted with this state as a recovery support services
21 provider, but shall meet the qualifications to be contracted with this state as such a provider. No 22 housing organization shall be a qualified organization unless accredited by the National Alliance of 23 Recovery Residences (NARR) or Adult and Teen Challenge (ATC) USA;

24 (6) "Recovery support services", includes care coordination, recovery coaching, spiritual 25 counseling, group support, employment services, job training, educational services, and recovery
26 housing and transportation, in coordination with substance use disorder service providers. Recovery 27 support services may be offered in a variety of settings, including community, faith-based, and peer 28 recovery organizations. Recovery support programs shall be person-centered and self-directed, 29 allowing a recovering individual to choose the provider;

30 (7) "State tax liability", in the case of a business taxpayer, any liability incurred by such 31 taxpayer under the provisions of chapters 143, 148, and 153, excluding the provisions of sections
32 143.191 to 143.265 and related provisions; and in the case of an individual taxpayer, any liability
33 incurred by such taxpayer under the provisions of chapter 143, excluding the provisions of sections 34 143.191 to 143.265 and related provisions;

35 (8) "Substance use disorder", any disorder identified in the Diagnostic and Statistical 36 Manual of Mental Disorders, Fifth Edition (DSM-V or DSM 5), relating to one of ten classes of

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 drugs, including alcohol; caffeine; cannabis; hallucinogens; inhalants; opioids; sedatives, hypnotics,
 2 or anxiolytics; stimulants, including amphetamine-type substances, cocaine, and other stimulants;
 3 tobacco; and other or unknown substances. Repeated use of a substance shall be considered a 4 substance use disorder if the repeated use causes significant impairment, disability, a failure to meet 5 responsibilities, health problems, impaired control, social problems, or other risks;

6 (9) "Taxpayer", a person, firm, partner in a firm, corporation, or shareholder in an S 7 corporation doing business in the state of Missouri and subject to the state income tax imposed by 8 the provisions of chapter 143; an insurance company paying an annual tax on its gross premium
 9 receipts in this state; a financial institution paying taxes to the state of Missouri or to any political 10 subdivision of this state under the provisions of chapter 148; an express company that pays an 11 annual tax on its gross receipts in this state under chapter 153; an individual subject to the state
 12 income tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 143; or any charitable organization that is exempt
 13 from federal income tax and whose Missouri unrelated business taxable income, if any, would be 14 subject to the state income tax imposed under chapter 143.

15 2. Subject to appropriation, for all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2023, a 16 taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an amount
 17 equal to fifty percent of the taxpayer's contribution to a qualified organization. No contribution 18 shall be used to purchase goods or services from or to produce a direct financial benefit for the 19 contributor. The qualified organization shall use the taxpayer's contribution to assist people in 20 recovery from substance use disorders by providing such people with recovery support services 21 including, but not limited to, supportive housing.

22 3. Tax credits issued under this section shall not be refundable; however, any tax credit that 23 cannot be claimed for the tax year in which the contribution is made may be carried forward to the 24 next four succeeding tax years until the full credit has been claimed. No tax credits issued under the 25 provisions of this section shall be assigned, transferred, or sold.

26 4. Except for any excess credit carried forward under subsection 3 of this section, a taxpayer
 27 shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit under this section unless the total amount of the taxpayer's 28 contribution or contributions in the tax year to one or more qualified organizations has a value of at 29 least two hundred fifty dollars.

30 5. The director shall determine, at least annually, which organizations in this state may be 31 classified as qualified organizations, according to the definition provided under subsection 1 of this 32 section. The director may require an organization seeking to be classified as a qualified 33 organization to provide any information that is reasonably necessary for the director to make such a 34 determination.

35 6. The director shall establish a procedure, in consultation with the department of revenue, 36 by which a taxpayer can determine if an organization has been classified as a qualified organization.

37 7. (1) Upon receipt and acceptance of a contribution from a taxpayer, a qualified 38 organization shall issue to the taxpayer a statement evidencing the receipt of such contribution, 39 including the monetary value of such contribution.

40 (2) A qualified organization shall be permitted to decline a contribution from a taxpayer.

41 8. Each qualified organization shall provide information to the director of revenue relating 42 to the identity of each taxpayer making a contribution to the qualified organization who is claiming 43 a tax credit under this section and the amount of such taxpayer's contribution.

44 9. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the director of revenue shall 45 not authorize more than two million five hundred thousand dollars in tax credits under this section 46 in any calendar year. Tax credits shall be authorized on a first-come, first-served basis. In any 47 given tax year, no more than twenty percent of the total tax credits available under this section shall 48 be authorized for contributions to any particular qualified organization.

49 10. Under section 23.253 of the Missouri sunset act:

1 (1) The new program established under this section shall automatically sunset on December 2 thirty-first six years after the effective date of this section unless reauthorized by an act of the 3 general assembly;

4 (2) If such program is reauthorized, the program authorized under this section shall 5 automatically sunset on December thirty-first twelve years after the effective date of the 6 reauthorization of this section; and

7 (3) This section shall terminate on September first of the calendar year immediately 8 following the calendar year in which the program authorized under this section is sunset."; and 9

10 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 11 accordingly.
