2 by inserting after all of the said section and line the following:
3

4 "161.852. 1. The department of elementary and secondary education shall develop a tool 5 within the department's comprehensive data system that provides access to every school district's 6 curriculum and professional development materials.

7 2. The tool shall consist of an easy-to-search database including, but not limited to, the 8 following:

9 (1) All curriculum taught by the school district;

10 (2) All documents used by a school district in the professional development of the district's 11 faculty and staff including, but not limited to, administrators, teachers, counselors, and classroom 12 support staff;

13 (3) The names of all speakers and guests used by a school district in the school district's 14 professional development activities; and

15 (4) The costs associated with speakers and guests used by a school district in the school
16 district's professional development activities.

17 3. The department of elementary and secondary education shall establish an online form that 18 each school district in this state shall complete with information required under subsection 2 of this 19 section.

20 4. A school district shall submit any updates to the information outlined in subsection 2 of 21 this section every six months. A public school or school district may make good-faith modifications 22 to curricula during each six-month period between updates but shall not be required to submit an 23 update of such modifications until the next six-month update.

24 5. Not less than monthly, the department of elementary and secondary education shall 25 update the tool with the information required by this section to be submitted by each school district 26 and shall ensure that the tool is maintained as the primary centralized source of information about 27 the curriculum and instructional materials used by public school districts.

28 6. The department of elementary and secondary education may promulgate rules to 29 implement this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that 30 is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This 2 section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly
3 pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are 4 subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or 5 adopted after August 28, 2022, shall be invalid and void."; and
