

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTIETH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2005

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Jetton in the Chair.

Dedication of the Chamber's new Preamble display and prayer was given by Representative Rob Schaaf.

In a moment, please join me in dedicating our Chamber's new Preamble display with a prayer.

Before we pray, however, all those who made the Preamble Project possible deserve thanks, beginning with the members who supported House Resolution No. 6 last year, and especially Representative J.C. Kuessner and former Representative Ronnie Miller, co-sponsors. Special thanks go to former Speaker Catherine Hanaway, Speaker Rod Jetton and now Senator Jason Crowell, each of whom gave special assistance. The original concept of a Missouri-shaped display was Ray Griggs', my legislative aide. The artwork and design were completed by the Art Department of Missouri Western State College, especially Teresa Harris and Dr. Allison Sauls. Van Vickle Monuments of Saint Joseph arranged for the actual construction and Tom Sater, Capitol Restorations Consultant, coordinated the installation. In addition to all of these, thanks go to the many citizens across Missouri who contributed financially.

The display's black granite can be found only in Zimbabwe and was chosen for its rich appearance and harmony with the Chamber's other architectural elements. It weighs 158 pounds, is approximately 36 inches wide by 34 inches tall, and its letters are lined with gold leaf, except for the great seal which is photo etched.

Missouri voters adopted a new Constitution on February 27th, 1945, including the Preamble which is very similar to the Preamble of the Constitution of 1875. For those listening and unable to see the Preamble display, let me remind you of its words:

"We, the people of Missouri, with profound reverence for the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, and grateful for His goodness, do establish this constitution for the better government of the state."

And now, let us pray.

Our Father,
Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.

Sixty years ago yesterday, the People of Missouri voted to adopt a new Constitution, the Preamble of which uses Your name, Supreme Ruler of the Universe.

Now, as then, our mood is one of profound reverence for You, as we rededicate our Constitution by displaying its Preamble with Your name in our Chamber. Help us preserve this reverent spirit as we make decisions that affect the lives of our fellow Missourians.

Now, as then, we are grateful for Your goodness. We give thanks for our many blessings, and the wisdom You gave to those who came before us. By adopting our Constitution, they protected the freedoms You gave us.

In rededicating our Constitution, we rejoice in our freedom to display Your name. Yet we are mindful that there are some who would take away that freedom. Give us the strength to resist them, and the resolve to never let Your name be removed from our Constitution, from our Chamber, from our hearts.

Finally, we ask for Your guidance as we go about our daily work of governing. Let our Preamble remind us that there is not one among men who is called supreme. That name belongs only to You, the Supreme Ruler of the Universe.

And always as we pray, it is in Your name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Eleanor Loaghaire Kloeckener.

The Journal of the twenty-ninth day was approved as printed by the following vote:
