

HB 462 -- Civil Liability for Providing Emergency Care

Sponsor: Smith (118)

This bill includes suicide prevention intervention rendered in good faith at the scene of a threatened suicide by a mental health professional, substance abuse counselor, or other person who has been trained to provide suicide prevention interventions to the list of care or services rendered in an emergency situation that are immune from civil liability.