

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 93rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 2006

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Bearden in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Donald W. Lammers.

Let us pray.

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
Prudent are all who live by it.
His praise endures forever.”
(Psalm 111:10)

Almighty God, important and emotion-charged topics have been and are swirling around us these days. Stir in us enough fear of You and reverence for You that we are slow to speak, lest we take positions that offend You and contradict Your Holy will.

In our study of the issues before us, give us the ability to discern what is right and what is true, what merits top priority and what is of lesser merit. In dialogue and debate, give us judgment to distinguish right from wrong, truth from error, wisdom from that which is less than wise.

Preserve in us throughout this day the healthy “fear of the Lord”, that will allow us to show wisdom.

We adore and honor You, Almighty God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Samanta Warden, Liz Kothe-Sharp, Marissa Sieckmann, Carter Jeffery, Morgan Ashlee McAdams and Grant Franklin.

The Journal of the thirty-third day was approved as printed.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4

Relating to recognition of autism awareness day and autism awareness month.

WHEREAS, it is estimated that more the 1.5 million Americans live with some form of autism, including more than 100,000 children served under the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA); and

WHEREAS, the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education recently identified 3,393 children between the ages of 3 and 21 as autistic, an increase of 1,000% from the 294 children identified in 1991; and

WHEREAS, the increase in autism spectrum disorder's prevalence across the entire United States is an urgent public health concern, with the frequency of autism spectrum disorders now surpassing that of all types of cancer combined; and

WHEREAS, while autism is not a curable disorder, recent studies have shown that early intervention can have dramatic results for children which allows them to enjoy a productive and independent life; and

WHEREAS, because many insurance companies and government assistance does not fully cover the costs of services associated with autism, many families are spending in excess of $70,000 a year for services for their children; and

WHEREAS, during the month of April the autism community around the United States will be involved in many activities to increase awareness of autism:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby:

(1) Recognize April twenty-seventh of each year as "Autism Awareness Day" and the month of April each year as "Autism Awareness Month" in Missouri;

(2) Recognize and commend the parents and relatives of children with autism for their sacrifice and dedication in providing for the special needs of children with autism and for absorbing significant financial costs for specialized education and support services;

(3) Stress the need to begin early intervention services soon after an individual has been diagnosed with autism, noting that early intervention strategies are the primary therapeutic options for individuals with autism and early intervention significantly improves outcomes for individuals with autism and can reduce the level of funding and services needed later in life;

(4) Recognize the shortage of appropriately trained teachers who have the skills and support necessary to teach, assist, and respond to special needs students, including those students with autism; and

(5) Recognize the importance of worker training programs that meet the needs of developmentally disabled individuals, including those individuals with autism, and note that individuals with autism can be and are productive members of the workforce if they are given appropriate support, training, and early intervention services; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this resolution be sent to the Governor for his approval or rejection pursuant to the Missouri Constitution.
