

HB 733 -- Securities Regulation

Sponsor: Page

This bill changes the definition of "security" as it is used in the laws regulating securities so that the sale of variable annuities will be governed by the Secretary of State. Currently, sales are regulated by the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions, and Professional Registration.