

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

HOUSE BILL NO. 617

96TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVES HOLSMAN (Sponsor), ATKINS,
McNEIL AND WALTON GRAY (Co-sponsors).

1346L.011

D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 171.031, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the school calendar.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 171.031, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 171.031, to read as follows:

171.031. 1. Each school board shall prepare annually a calendar for the school term, specifying the opening date and providing a minimum term of at least one hundred seventy-four days for schools with a five-day school week or one hundred forty-two days for schools with a four-day school week, and one thousand forty-four hours of actual pupil attendance. In addition, such calendar shall include six make-up days for possible loss of attendance due to inclement weather as defined in subsection 1 of section 171.033.

2. Each local school district may set its opening date each year, which date shall be no earlier than ten calendar days prior to the first Monday in September. No public school district shall select an earlier start date unless the district follows the procedure set forth in subsection 3 of this section.

3. A district may set an opening date that is more than ten calendar days prior to the first Monday in September only if the local school board first gives public notice of a public meeting to discuss the proposal of opening school on a date more than ten days prior to the first Monday in September, and the local school board holds said meeting and, at the same public meeting, a majority of the board votes to allow an earlier opening date. If all of the previous conditions are met, the district may set its opening date more than ten calendar days prior to the first Monday

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

17 in September. The condition provided in this subsection must be satisfied by the local school
18 board each year that the board proposes an opening date more than ten days before the first 19 Monday in September.

20 4. If any local district violates the provisions of this section, the department of 21 elementary and secondary education shall withhold an amount equal to one quarter of the state
22 funding the district generated under section 163.031, RSMo, for each date the district was in 23 violation of this section.

24 5. The provisions of subsections 2 to 4 of this section shall not apply to school districts
25 in which school is in session for twelve months of each calendar year.

26 6. The state board of education may grant an exemption from this section to a school
27 district that demonstrates highly unusual and extenuating circumstances justifying exemption
28 from the provisions of subsections 2 to 4 of this section. Any exemption granted by the state
29 board of education shall be valid for one academic year only.

30 7. No school day for schools with a five-day school week shall be longer than seven
31 hours except for vocational schools which may adopt an eight-hour day in a metropolitan school
32 district and a school district in a first class county adjacent to a city not within a county, and any 33 school that adopts a four-day school week in accordance with section 171.029.

34 8. A school district that has been designated as unaccredited or provisionally
35 accredited by the state board shall ensure that its school calendar for the school year
36 following the announcement of such designation has no more than six consecutive weeks
37 when student attendance is not required between school years, no more than three 38 consecutive weeks when student attendance is not required between grading periods, and 39 no more than five consecutive days when student attendance is not required during any 40 grading period. The minimum number of days and hours of student attendance as 41 required under subsection 1 of this section shall continue to apply to such districts. The 42 provisions of this subsection shall not be applicable to any such district in the school year
43 following the school year in which the district receives a designation of accreditation with 44 no provisions.
