

HB 693 -- Receiving Stolen Property

Sponsor: Schad

This bill revises the punishment for the crime of receiving stolen property, a class A misdemeanor. If the value of the property or services stolen is $500 or more but less than $25,000 or a person physically takes the property from the victim or the property consists of certain specified items, the person will be guilty of a class C felony. The receipt of any item of property or services that exceeds $500 may be considered a separate felony and may be charged in separate counts. Any person with a prior conviction for receiving stolen livestock or captive wildlife who violates those same provisions a subsequent time when the value of the animal stolen exceeds $3,000 will be guilty of a class B felony and will be required to serve at least 80% of any sentence imposed before he or she is eligible for probation, parole, conditional release, or other early release by the Department of Corrections. Anyone committing an offense in which the value of the property or services is an element will be guilty of a class B felony if the value equals or exceeds $25,000.
