

HB 767 -- Debt Offsets

Sponsor: Bahr

Currently, the Department of Revenue has a reciprocal agreement with the United States Treasury to offset income tax overpayments. This bill allows the department director and the Commissioner of the Office of Administration to jointly enter into a reciprocal agreement with the federal government or any other state for the collection and offset of vendor and contractor payments for any type of debt owed to the state.