

HB 786 -- Department of Revenue Fee Offices

Sponsor: Franklin

Currently, the Director of the Department of Revenue must give priority to a tax-exempt organization or a political subdivision when awarding a fee office contract in the competitive bidding process. This bill requires the department director to give priority to a tax-exempt organization whose primary administrative office is located in the same county, legislative district, or senatorial district as the fee office or to a political subdivision.