

HB 957 -- Ratepayer Fairness Act

Sponsor: Barnes

This bill establishes the Ratepayer Fairness Act which allows an aluminum smelting facility to keep any special utility rate at the ratepayer class. If a facility no longer employs 200 employees, a rebate of the difference between the ratepayer's rate and the next lowest rate must be paid to residential ratepayers served by the electrical corporation.