

HJR 1 -- Filing of Legislative Bills

Sponsor: Allen

Upon voter approval, this proposed constitutional amendment prohibits a legislative bill from being introduced in the Senate or the House of Representatives unless accompanied by a memorandum from the sponsor containing the title of the bill, the central purpose or issue to be resolved, a summary of all statutory sections, the constitutional authority for the proposed action, and the projected fiscal impact.