

HJR 33 -- General Assembly Members

Sponsor: Crawford

Upon voter approval, this proposed constitutional amendment requires any office of a senator or representative to be deemed vacated if the member removes himself or herself from the state during a session of the member's respective body for the purpose of avoiding any official duty or vote.