

HB 1231 -- PREFERENCE FOR MISSOURI PRODUCTS

Currently, any agricultural product that has been processed or otherwise had value added to it in this state must be given preference by the Commissioner of Administration or any state agent with purchasing power whenever competing bids are comparable. This bill requires forest products and bricks that have been processed or had value added to them in this state to also receive the preference.