

HB 1359 -- State Contracts

Sponsor: Smith (150)

This bill prohibits any state employee in a decision-making position for a state contract from taking employment with the business, company, or other entity with which the employee was in a decision-making position for that contract for at least two years from the date when the contract was initiated.