

HB 1434 -- Sewage and Water Services

Sponsor: McGhee

Currently, any water provider who terminates service due to delinquency of payment by a consumer cannot be liable for any civil or criminal damages. This bill specifies that any water provider or premises owner who terminates service due to delinquency of payment by a consumer cannot be liable for any civil or criminal damages for termination of the service nor can it be deemed constructive eviction.