

HB 1777 -- Consulting Contracts with the State of Missouri

Sponsor: Barnes

This bill requires any new consulting contract by a consultant representing or performing services for the State of Missouri in a foreign country to contain a provision that the consultant refrain from representing companies from that country in proceedings before or negotiations with the Department of Economic Development or for any other public policy purpose in the state. Any preexisting relationships between a contractor and companies in a foreign county will be exempt from these provisions.