

HB 1980 -- Community College District Property

Sponsor: Richardson

Currently, community college districts and public school districts may only own real property within their boundaries. This bill specifies that this provision will not apply to community college districts.