

HJR 39 -- Legislative Changes to Statutes Enacted by Initiative
Petitions

Sponsor: Schoeller

Upon voter approval, this constitutional amendment prohibits any change by the General Assembly to a new or amended statute as approved by a majority of the voters through the initiative petition process unless the percentage of votes in favor of the change in each chamber equals or exceeds the percentage of votes on the original measure as submitted by the voters.