

HB 790 -- School District Annexation Petitions

Sponsor: Spencer

Currently, a petition on a school district annexation must contain the signatures of 10% of those voting in the last school board election or a majority of the voters of the district, whichever is less. This bill increases the percentage to 20%. If voters do not approve the annexation, a petition for annexation of the same area cannot be circulated for at least two years after the election.