

CCS HCS SCS SB 117 -- MILITARY AFFAIRS

This bill changes the laws regarding military affairs.

HONOR AND REMEMBER FLAG

The bill allows the Honor and Remember flag to be displayed at and upon the grounds of all state buildings and within state parks, along with the United States flag, Missouri flag, and the POW/MIA flag, as an official recognition and in honor of fallen members of the Armed Forces of the United States.

RESIDENT STATUS FOR ADMISSION TO PUBLIC HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS

A person who is separating from any branch of the United States military with an honorable discharge or a general discharge must have resident status for admission and in-state or in-district tuition at any approved public higher education institution in the state if the person can demonstrate presence and declare residency within the state and, if attending community college, within the taxing district of the community college he or she attends. The Coordinating Board for Higher Education within the Department of Higher Education must establish rules to implement these provisions.

CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION RIGHTS FOR MILITARY PERSONNEL

The bill establishes the child custody and visitation rights of a deploying military parent. In its main provisions, the bill:

- (1) Defines "deploying parent" as a parent of a child younger than 18 years of age whose parental rights have not been terminated by a court of competent jurisdiction or a guardian of a child younger than 18 years of age who is deployed or who has received written orders to deploy with the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, National Guard, or any other reserve component;
- (2) Prohibits a court from entering a final order modifying the terms of an existing custody or visitation order until 90 days after the military parent's deployment ends unless there is a written agreement by both parties;
- (3) Specifies that deployment or the potential for deployment must not be the sole factor supporting a change in circumstances or grounds sufficient to support a permanent modification of the custody or visitation terms of an existing order;

(4) Allows an existing order establishing the terms of custody or visitation to be temporarily modified to make reasonable accommodation for the parties due to a deployment and specifies the terms that must be included in the temporary order;

(5) Specifies that a temporary modification of an order ends no later than 30 days after the return of the deploying parent and the terms of the original custody order are automatically reinstated;

(6) Allows a court to delegate a deploying parent's visitation rights, or a portion of the rights, to a family member with a close and substantial relationship to the minor child for the duration of the deployment if it is in the best interest of the child and the member does not have a history of perpetrating domestic violence;

(7) Specifies certain obligations that the non-deploying parent must have to the deploying parent under any order entered;

(8) Requires a deploying parent to provide a copy of his or her deploying orders to the non-deploying parent promptly and without delay prior to the deployment;

(9) Prohibits a court from counting any time periods during which the deploying parent did not exercise visitation due to military duties when determining whether a parent failed to exercise visitation rights;

(10) Specifies that any absence of a child from the state during a deployment after an order for custody has been entered must be denominated as a temporary absence for the purposes of the federal Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act; and

(11) Specifies the factors a court must consider in awarding attorney fees and costs in a custody determination.
