9 shall thereafter perform all duties, exercise all powers, have all rights and be subject to all liabilities
10 imposed and conferred upon the county collector of revenue under chapter 52 until the first Monday 11 in March after the general election next following the abolishment of township organization and until 12 a collector of revenue for the county is elected and qualified. The person elected collector at the 13 general election as aforesaid, if that election is not one for collector of revenue under chapter 52, 14 shall serve until the first Monday in March following the election and qualification of a collector of 15 revenue under chapter 52. Upon abolition of township organization a county treasurer shall be 16 appointed to serve until the expiration of the term of such officer pursuant to chapter 54.

17 2. Upon abolition of township organization, title to all property of all kinds theretofore
18 owned by the several townships of the county shall vest in the county and the county shall be liable 19 for all outstanding obligations and liabilities of the several townships.

20 3. The terms of office of all township officers shall expire on the abolition of township 21 organization and the township trustee of each township shall immediately settle his accounts with the 22 county clerk and all township officers shall promptly deliver to the appropriate county officers, as 23 directed by the county commission, all books, papers, records and property pertaining to their 24 offices.

25 4. For a period of one calendar year following the abolition of the townships or until the 26 voters of the county have approved a tax levy for road and bridge purposes, whichever occurs first, 27 the county collector shall continue to collect a property tax on a county-wide basis in an amount 28 equal to the tax levied by the township that had the lowest total tax rate in the county immediately
29 prior to the abolishment of the townships. The continued collection of the tax shall be considered a 30 continuation of an existing tax and shall not be considered a new tax levy."; and
