Date: March 17, 2015

Subject: Family Law; Insurance - General; Marriage and Divorce

Bill Summary: This proposal allows an insurance policyholder to petition the court for reimbursement of insurance costs from the other party as they occur during the pendency of a dissolution of marriage or legal separation.

State Fiscal Highlights

- No direct fiscal impact on the state is anticipated.

Local Fiscal Highlights

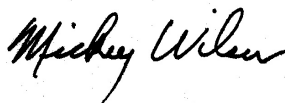

- No direct fiscal impact on local political subdivisions is anticipated.

Fiscal Analysis

Officials from the Office of the State Courts Administrator assume the current proposal would not fiscally impact their agency.

In response to a previous version of this proposal, officials from the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration assumed the proposal would not fiscally impact their agency.

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal. Also, this legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
