FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

In response to a previous version, officials from the Joint Committee on Public Employee Retirement stated that this legislation would not create a substantial proposed change in future plan benefits as defined in Section 105.660(10).

In response to a previous version, officials from the Public School and Education Employees Retirement System (PSRS) stated this proposal will have no measurable fiscal impact to the system. This proposal creates a suspension of a member's retirement allowance when they return to work, which results in a temporary savings for the system. The accrual of a second retirement allowance during the suspension period can result in a small cost or savings to the system. Historically, a very small percentage of retirees return to work in a capacity that exceeds the limitations noted above. As of June 30, 2014, 106 of 49,707 PSRS service retirees, or .2%, have returned to work and had their retirement allowance suspended. As of June 30, 2014, 87 of 22,756 Public Education Employee Retirement System service retirees, or .4%, have returned to work and had their retirement allowance suspended.

FISCAL IMPACT - State Government	FY 2016 (10 Mo.)	FY 2017	FY 2018

FISCAL IMPACT - Local Government	FY 2016 (10 Mo.)	FY 2017	FY 2018
	$0	$0	$0

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

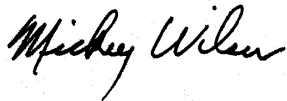

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

The proposed legislation appears to have no direct fiscal impact.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
