55 seventeen years of age who resides in a county of this state shall be made as follows:

56 (1) Prior to the filing of a petition and upon request of any party or at the discretion of 57 the juvenile officer, the matter in the interest of a child or person seventeen years of age may be 58 transferred by the juvenile officer, with the prior consent of the juvenile officer of the receiving 59 court, to the county of the child's residence or the residence of the person seventeen years of age 60 for future action;

61 (2) Upon the motion of any party or on its own motion prior to final disposition on the 62 pending matter, the court in which a proceeding is commenced may transfer the proceeding of 63 a child or person seventeen years of age to the court located in the county of the child's residence 64 or the residence of the person seventeen years of age, or the county in which the offense pursuant 65 to subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section is alleged to have occurred for further action;

66 (3) Upon motion of any party or on its own motion, the court in which jurisdiction has 67 been taken pursuant to subsection 1 of this section may at any time thereafter transfer jurisdiction

82 transfer.

83 3. In any proceeding involving any child or person seventeen years of age taken into 84 custody in a county other than the county of the child's residence or the residence of a person
85 seventeen years of age, the juvenile court of the county of the child's residence or the residence 86 of a person seventeen years of age shall be notified of such taking into custody within 87 seventy-two hours.

88 4. When an investigation by a juvenile officer pursuant to this section reveals that the 89 only basis for action involves an alleged violation of section 167.031 involving a child who 90 alleges to be home schooled, the juvenile officer shall contact a parent or parents of such child
91 to verify that the child is being home schooled and not in violation of section 167.031 before
92 making a report of such a violation. Any report of a violation of section 167.031 made by a 93 juvenile officer regarding a child who is being home schooled shall be made to the prosecuting
94 attorney of the county where the child legally resides.

95 5. The disability or disease of a parent shall not constitute a basis for a determination that 96 a child is a child in need of care or for the removal of custody of a child from the parent without 97 a specific showing that there is a causal relation between the disability or disease and harm to 98 the child.

211.036. 1. If a youth under the age of twenty-one is released from the custody of the 2 children's division and after such release it appears that it would be in such youth's best interest
3 to have his or her custody returned to the children's division, the juvenile officer, the children's 4 division or the youth may petition the court to return custody of such youth to the division until 5 the youth is twenty-one years of age. The petition shall be filed in the court that previously

6 exercised authority over the youth under section 211.031. If such petition is not heard 7 within six months of the filing date, the petition may be filed in the court where the youth 8 resides or in the court of an adjacent county. In deciding if it is in the best interests of the 9 youth to be returned to the custody of the division under this section, the court shall 10 consider the following factors:

- 11 (1) The circumstances of the youth;
- 12 (2) Whether the children's division has services or programs in place that will 13 benefit the youth and assist the youth in transitioning to self-sufficiency; and
- 14 (3) Whether the youth has the commitment to fully cooperate with the division in 15 developing and implementing a case plan.

17 The court shall not return a youth to the custody of the division who has been committed 18 to the custody of another agency; who is under a legal guardianship; or who has pled guilty 19 or who has been found guilty of a felony criminal offense.

20 2. The youth shall cooperate with the case plan developed for the youth by the 21 children's division in consultation with the youth.

22 3. For purposes of this section, a "youth" is any person eighteen years of age or 23 older and under twenty-one years of age who was in the custody of the children's division 24 in foster care at any time in the two-year period preceding the youth's eighteenth birthday.

25 4. The court may, upon motion of the children's division or the youth, terminate 26 care and supervision before the youth's twenty-first birthday if the division does not have 27 services available for the youth or if the youth declines to cooperate with the case plan.
