2. For purposes of this chapter and chapters 193, 333, and 436, and in all cases relating to the custody, control, and disposition of deceased human remains, including the common law right of sepulcher, where not otherwise defined, the term "next-of-kin" means the following persons in the priority listed if such person is eighteen years of age or older, is mentally competent, and is willing to assume responsibility for the costs of disposition:

Section 1482;

(3) The surviving spouse;

47 individual so served does not object within forty-eight hours of receipt, such individual shall be
48 deemed to have waived such right. An individual with a superior right may also waive such right 49 at any time if such waiver is in writing and dated.

50 7. If there is more than one person in a class who are equal in priority and the funeral

53 person in the class to make arrangements; provided that such person assumes responsibility for
