83 telecommunications services believes that the amount of tax, the assignment of place of primary 84 use or the taxing jurisdiction included on a billing is erroneous, the customer shall notify the 85 home service provider, in writing, within three years from the date of the billing statement. The 86 customer shall include in such written notification the street address for the customer's place of 91 review its records and the electronic database or enhanced zip code to determine the customer's 92 correct taxing jurisdiction. If the home service provider determines that the review shows that 93 the amount of tax, assignment of place of primary use or taxing jurisdiction is in error, the home 94 service provider shall correct the error and, at its election, either refund or credit the amount of
