

HCS HB 122 -- FIREARMS (McGaugh)

This bill specifies that an individual who is occupying private property under the authority of the property owner is permitted to use deadly force in specified situations.

A municipal or county prosecuting attorney or assistant prosecuting attorney or a municipal, associate circuit, or circuit judge who has completed the required firearms safety training course is added to the list of individuals who are exempt from specified provisions regarding the carrying of a concealed weapon.

A certificate of firearms safety training course completion may also be issued to an applicant who presents proof that he or she has passed a course conducted by an instructor certified by the National Rifle Association as specified in the bill and who also passes specified requirements in a course that is taught by a qualified firearms safety instructor.
